Re: Washington Mutual Bank FA,
[REDACTED], Reference Nos. [REDACTED]
and [REDACTED]

Dear Sir or Madam:

I write on behalf of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. ("JPMC") in connection with the above-referenced Corporate Income Tax notice directed to Washington Mutual Bank FA ("WMB") by [REDACTED] on behalf of the State of [REDACTED] Department of Finance ("[REDACTED]").

On March 28, 2013, [REDACTED] directed the enclosed notice, [REDACTED], to WMB, asserting corporate income tax liabilities of $72,953.13 for the tax period December 31, 2001 through December 31, 2002 (the "March 2013 Assessment"). On October 18, 2013, [REDACTED] directed another notice, enclosed, [REDACTED] to WMB, asserting corporate income tax liabilities of $39,641.90 for the same tax period (the "October 2013 Assessment").

[REDACTED]

Receiver-in-Charge,
Receiver of Washington Mutual Bank,
Henderson, Nevada

[REDACTED]

On May 19, 2014, [REDACTED] on behalf of [REDACTED] directed the enclosed notice, [REDACTED], to WMB, asserting corporate income tax liabilities of $26,875.48 for the tax period ending December 31, 2001 [REDACTED] and $14,376.04 for the tax period ending December 31, 2002 [REDACTED] (the "May 2014 Assessment" and, together with the March 2013 Assessment and the October 2013 Assessment, the "Assessments").

[REDACTED]

As WMB, not JPMC, is the taxpayer at issue here, and the FDIC has not provided JPMC with a power of attorney to represent WMB before [REDACTED], JPMC lacks the authority to engage with [REDACTED] concerning the Assessments. I am copying the Chief Executive Officer of [REDACTED] and the Director of [REDACTED] Division of Revenue on this letter, so that the FDIC may be in contact with them directly concerning the Assessments and any other tax assessments [REDACTED] may in the future direct to WMB for tax periods prior to its closure. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you would like to discuss further any of the above.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
Robert A. Sacks
