

Money Smart at Pondville Correctional Facility

Department of Correction
Commonwealth of Massachusetts

What do we do?

Why do we do it?

What are the results?

What is in the program's future?

How can you help?

FDIC - Money Smart

The Money Smart Curriculum.

The Location.

The Clients.

The Six Week Schedule.

The Modifications to the Curriculum.

The Ongoing Assessment and Revisions.

What Do We Do?

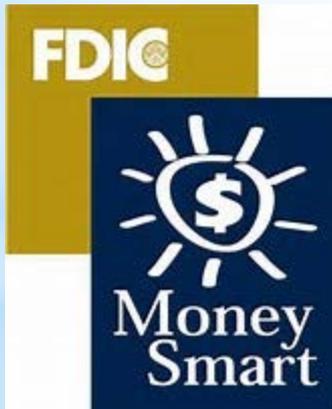

We Do It for the Benefits to:

The Clients.

The Department of Correction Personnel.

Our Employers, Who Support Our Efforts.

Ourselves.

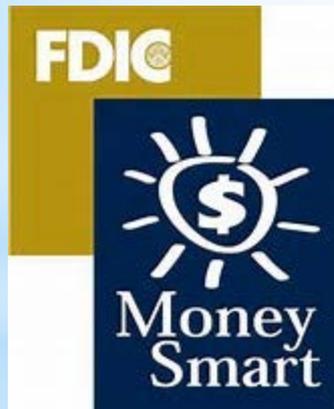

Why Do We Do It?

A Small Step Towards the Larger
Goal of Rehabilitation and Reduced Recidivism.

A Calmer House.

What are the Results?

Comments from Past Clients:

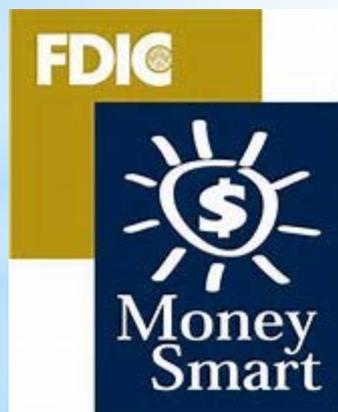

“Best class. Thank you.”

“I enjoyed it and wished it was longer.”

“Make it longer (more classes).”

“...more material and a longer course.”

What are the Results?

Our Goal

To have a Money Smart Class delivered on a regular schedule at every Massachusetts Correctional Institution within three years.

What is the Program's Future?

Volunteer!

- The curriculum is fully developed and easy to follow.
- You can modify the class work to teach to your skills.
- The time commitment can be as little or as much as you like.
- The rewards are great.

How Can You Help?

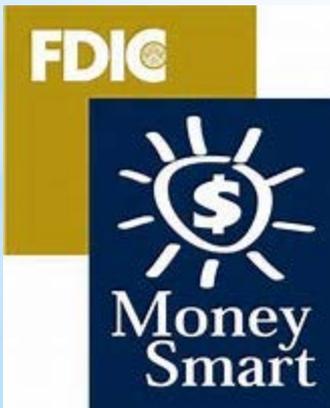

William Milhomme
Director of Volunteer Services
Massachusetts Department of Correction
(508) 422-3437

William.Milhomme@State.MA.US

Chris Vericker
Vice President
Middlesex Savings Bank
(508) 599-5849

cvericker@middlesexbank.com

Contact Us