

MISSION, VISION, AND VALUES

MISSION

The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) is an independent agency created by the Congress to maintain stability and public confidence in the nation's financial system by:

- ◆ Insuring deposits,
- ◆ Examining and supervising financial institutions for safety and soundness and consumer protection,
- ◆ Making large and complex financial institutions resolvable, and
- ◆ Managing receiverships.

VISION

The FDIC is a recognized leader in promoting sound public policies; addressing risks in the nation's financial system; and carrying out its insurance, supervisory, consumer protection, resolution planning, and receivership management responsibilities.

VALUES

The FDIC and its employees have a tradition of distinguished public service. Six core values guide us in accomplishing our mission:

- | | |
|-----------------------|--|
| Integrity | We adhere to the highest ethical and professional standards. |
| Competence | We are a highly skilled, dedicated, and diverse workforce that is empowered to achieve outstanding results. |
| Teamwork | We communicate and collaborate effectively with one another and with other regulatory agencies. |
| Effectiveness | We respond quickly and successfully to risks in insured depository institutions and the financial system. |
| Accountability | We are accountable to each other and to our stakeholders to operate in a financially responsible and operationally effective manner. |
| Fairness | We respect individual viewpoints and treat one another and our stakeholders with impartiality, dignity, and trust. |
