Subject: [EXTERNAL MESSAGE] July 31, 2024 - Bank-Fintech Arrangements Involving Banking Products and Services Distributed to Consumers and Businesses; Comment Request (RIN 3064-ZA43)
Date: Saturday, September 21, 2024 7:26:23 PM

banks in fintech relationships should be mandated to own 100% responsibilities for ledgering and knowing end users balances at any given moment. They advertised my money was safe with FDIC, the fact that it actually is a grey area should be false advertisement.
